

Spotlight

JULY-AUGUST '08

For this month's Spotlight we'd like to introduce you to Akec. She is a neighbor to the Stringers and a big help to the Farises, bringing water to them each day. She is also the mother of five children. Though polygamy is common amongst our neighbors, her husband, Acuil, has not taken any other wives.

Akec and Acuil do not follow after Jesus. They have heard the Gospel, but they are very much afraid of a spirit called 'Madhul' who is known to bring death and disease upon the households it inhabits. This family is held captive as they do all they can to appease this evil spirit.

Uphold Akec, Acuil and their five children in prayer. Pray they would know and love Jesus as their only Savior and Lord and the freedom and peace found in following Him.

Dinka Phrase of the Month: Acin karac! (pronounced 'a karrach') meaning 'No problems!' or, more literally, 'Nothing bad!'

Family Activity of the Month: Once a week eat a dinner of rice and beans. Use that time to learn about how people in the developing world live. Save the money you would have spent on meat and other foods and give it to a Christian organization reaching out to people in the developing world.

Book of the Month: Window on the World, Daphne Spraggett with Jill Johnstone.

C4C Project Highlight of the Month: "Farming God's Way".

We are actively cultivating small garden plots as we try to adapt this new farming method to help the people produce higher yields of crops. They don't have grocery stores to buy their food from and many have little cash to work with. Therefore, we are implementing a no till farming method that is designed to help boost crop yield while providing opportunities for us to share about the Good News of Jesus Christ.

Financial Contributions for Cush4Christ can be sent to:

Cush4Christ
c/o RP Global Missions
7408 Penn Avenue
Pittsburgh, PA 15208

Make checks out to "RPCNA" and put "Cush4Christ" in the memo line.

www.cush4christ.org

Acuil, husband of Akec

Spotlight

JULY-AUGUST '08

For this month's Spotlight we'd like to introduce you to Akec. She is a neighbor to the Stringers and a big help to the Farises, bringing water to them each day. She is also the mother of five children. Though polygamy is common amongst our neighbors, her husband, Acuil, has not taken any other wives.

Akec and Acuil do not follow after Jesus. They have heard the Gospel, but they are very much afraid of a spirit called 'Madhul' who is known to bring death and disease upon the households it inhabits. This family is held captive as they do all they can to appease this evil spirit.

Uphold Akec, Acuil and their five children in prayer. Pray they would know and love Jesus as their only Savior and Lord and the freedom and peace found in following Him.

Dinka Phrase of the Month: Acin karac! (pronounced 'a karrach') meaning 'No problems!' or, more literally, 'Nothing bad!'

Family Activity of the Month: Once a week eat a dinner of rice and beans. Use that time to learn about how people in the developing world live. Save the money you would have spent on meat and other foods and give it to a Christian organization reaching out to people in the developing world.

Book of the Month: Window on the World, Daphne Spraggett with Jill Johnstone.

C4C Project Highlight of the Month: "Farming God's Way".

We are actively cultivating small garden plots as we try to adapt this new farming method to help the people produce higher yields of crops. They don't have grocery stores to buy their food from and many have little cash to work with. Therefore, we are implementing a no till farming method that is designed to help boost crop yield while providing opportunities for us to share about the Good News of Jesus Christ.

Financial Contributions for Cush4Christ can be sent to:

Cush4Christ
c/o RP Global Missions
7408 Penn Avenue
Pittsburgh, PA 15208

Make checks out to "RPCNA" and
put "Cush4Christ" in the memo line.

www.cush4christ.org

Acuil, husband of Akec

